

ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES DIVISION
ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT SECTION
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

P.O. Box 7611

Ben Franklin Station

Washington, D.C. 20044-7754

ATTN: Joseph Hurley, Senior Counsel

Fax: (202) 514-0097

E-mail: Joseph.Hurley@USDOJ.GOV

The Environmental Enforcement Section (EES) has responsibility for representing the United States in federal civil enforcement of all major environmental statutes, including CERCLA, RCRA, Clean Water Act and Clean Air Act. While the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is EES' primary client agency, EES also handles cases on behalf of DOI, USDA, and NOAA, as trustees of the national natural resources.

Projected No. 15 – 20 Summer

of Volunteers: 10 – 15 Fall and Spring semesters

Internship Washington, D.C.

Location(s):

Application Cover letter, resume, transcript (official or unofficial), and writing sample
Materials:

Qualifications: First-year (second semester) and second-year law students; excellent academic record and writing skills; background, experience or interest in environmental law, litigation or in public interest law.

Application Internships are filled as applications are received. The majority of summer
Deadline: internships are filled by January. The majority of fall and spring internships are filled by April and November, respectively.

Minimum Weeks 8 weeks (full summer strongly preferred)
Required:

Salary: Volunteer (without compensation)

Assignments: Interns typically draft legal memoranda, motions, briefs and written discovery in actual federal cases; participate in conference calls and strategy planning sessions with DOJ and agency counsel and technical experts; and, when possible, attend depositions, negotiations or court hearings in Washington, D.C.

Web Site: www.usdoj.gov/enrd

